

UCLA | Entering
Mentoring
Training Program

SUMMER 2017
9:00 – 10:30 AM

OBJECTIVE:

To enrich the academic experiences of UCLA's undergraduate researchers and to provide leadership guidance to UCLA's graduate student and post-doctoral trainees who are about to embark on advance career aspirations. The goals of the mentoring seminar are to guide mentors to 1) understand "scientific teaching" and apply it in mentoring, 2) build relationship based on trust and respect with a mentee and 3) build community with other mentors.

FACILITATORS:

Diana Azurdia, PhD dazurdia@mednet.ucla.edu
Rachel Kennison, PhD rkennison@ceils.ucla.edu

CURRICULUM:

Handlesman, J., Pfund, C., Miller, S. M. and Pribbenow, C., Entering Mentoring A Seminar to Train a New Generation of Scientists, 2009. Madison, WI. Itchy Cat Press.

COURSE MATERIALS:

Course materials and resources will be shared via BOX weekly. Must bring composition note book or journal to record reflections.

SESSION	DATE	DESCRIPTION AND ASSIGNMENT
1	06/29/17	Introduction to Mentor Training
2	07/06/17	Aligning Expectations
3	07/13/17	Maintaining Effective Communication
4	07/20/17	Promoting Professional Development / Intro. to Mentorship Philosophy
5	07/27/17	Cultivating Ethical Behavior
6	08/03/17	Conflict Resolution
7	08/10/17	Addressing Equity and Inclusion
8	08/17/17	Assessing Understanding
9	08/24/17	Fostering Independence
10	08/31/17	Articulating Your Mentoring Philosophy Plan

RSVP to participate by May 22, 2017: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/EMTSUMMER2017RSVP>